

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, August 14. 1722.

THE following Address has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Isaac Rebow, High Steward of the Borough of Colchester, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Thomond, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Essex.

To His most excellent Majesty King George, The humble Address of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Chamberlain, Assistants, and Common Council of your ancient Borough of Colchester in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave with Hearts full of the sincerest Joy, to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Discovery of the late traitorous Design against your Royal Person and Government: An Attempt attended with the most surprizing Aggravations of Guilt and Horror, as engaged in by some who stood obliged to defend your Majesty by the most solemn Ties of Oaths and Abjurations.

And indeed what is most monstrous and shocking, and excites in us at once the highest Indignation and Astonishment, is, that whilst your Majesty sways the Scepter with an obliging Hand, and pours on us all the Felicities of a legal and indulgent Reign, that any of your Subjects could be so unthinking, ungrateful and base, as to have any Share in it.

On this Occasion, permit us, Great Sir, (since all our Expressions will infinitely fall short of the just Sense we have of the many great and glorious Things your Majesty has done for us, and since all the Actions of our Lives joined with the highest Gratitude will bear no Proportion with our Obligations) to assure your Majesty, that we shall not be wanting upon all Occasions to serve your Majesty and the Succession in your illustrious House, to the utmost of our Abilities.

That your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and prosperous, and that the same good Providence which has hitherto in a signal Manner watched over you, may still guard and protect you as a lasting Blessing to your People; and that when full of Days and Glory your Majesty shall be received to an unshaken and immortal Kingdom, that your Crowns and Virtues may descend to your august Progeny, that we may never want one of your Royal Line to be the Prince of your People, and the Bulwark and Guardian of the Protestant Religion, shall be the most hearty and fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most obedient Subjects.

London, August 14.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France and another from Flanders.

Constantinople, June 20. The Grand Signior sent a considerable Body of Troops lately into Persia, with Orders to pass the Euphrates, and endeavour to surprize the City of Sufa, but the Turks found the Place so well provided at their Arrival that they were not able to withstand the vigorous Sally which the Rebels made upon them; wherefore the Bashaw is determined to lay a formal Siege to that City, and put the Garrison to the Sword. Another Body of Turkish Troops is on the March to join the Russians, and facilitate the Czar's Enterprise near the River Daria.

Warsaw, Aug. 1. On the 30th past the King returned hither to assist at the Festival of St. Ignatius, and is in much better Health than of late. After To-morrow will be celebrated the Anniversary of his Majesty's Birth-Day, and then all the vacant Benefices are to be disposed of. It is reported, that several Senators have declared their readiness to give their Votes for calling the Electoral Prince to the Succession of this Kingdom after the Demise of his present Majesty, provided that the Succession shall afterwards continue to be Elective. All things remain quiet on the Frontiers towards Turkey.

Dantzick, Aug. 2. The Magistrates of this City have been several Times assembled to take into Consideration the Demands of the Muscovite Officers for levying Sailors in these Parts, which 'tis probable they will be allowed to do, though not publicly. We know nothing certain touching the Czar's Expedition to Persia. The Duke of Mecklenberg is yet here.

Copenhagen, Aug. 11. Captain Fontenay is sent to Bornholm, where he is to open his Instructions. A Ship is likewise sent out to get Intelligence of the Muscovite Fleet. On Sunday last the King and Queen of Denmark returned from Walloe to Jagersborg. M. Nobel, Councillour of State, and M. Munch, Councillour of Justice, are set out for Norway, with a Commission from the King. Major General Coyet, the Swedish Envoy, is very pressing to have the Conferences concerning Trade to be renewed between the Commissaries of the two Kingdoms. The Nobility of Holstein have sent two Deputies to Copenhagen to make Representations concerning their Taxes.

Brussels, Aug. 1. On the 30th past the Marquis de Pré set out to Boisfort, where he had caused a great Entertainment to be prepared for several Persons of Quality of both Sexes who were purposely invited thither; and 'tis reported his Excellency designs to go to that Place twice or thrice a Week for the sake of the Air, as soon as he returns from Flanders, whither he will be going very soon. The Count de Nellerode, Commissary General of the Imperial Forces, is daily expected here from Vienna, to examine into the Condition of the Troops in these Countries. The Marquis de Lede continues yet on these Frontiers towards France, and some Politicians will have it that he is employed there upon Matters of Negotiation. A Travelling Chaise went through this City last Week from France with a great Quantity of Gold and Silver for Holland. Advices from Tournay say, that by Order from the Marquis de Pré, the Receiver of the Customs and his Clerks, are committed to Prison, for clandestinely admitting French Goods contrary to the Ordinances published for preventing the Communication of Infection. M. de Neuville of Liege, who was reckoned worth a Million and half, retired suddenly three Days ago without any publick Reason being yet given for his Disappearance, nor is it known that any of his Bills have been protested, which makes his absconding the more Extraordinary. The Cargoes of the two East India Ships that arrived lately at Ostend have been bought 40 per Cent dearer than they were the last Year, by which means the Owners have gained considerable Profit. The Criminal who committed the two Murders lately at Mechlin, and was afterwards taken at Liere, was broke alive upon the the Wheel last Week in the great Market-Place.

Madrid, Aug. 4. Their Catholic Majesties are expected to set out the 8th Instant from Balsain for the Escorial, and the Prince and Princess of Asturias with the Infantes are expected to arrive there the 6th in the Evening from the Buen-Retiro. The King has nominated the Archbishop of St. Jago to the Archbishoprick of Sevil, and the Bishop of Oisma to the Archbishoprick of St. Jago. The Duke of Ossuna's Equipage being ready, 'tis believed he will suddenly set out on his Return to Paris, with the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary from his Catholic Majesty.

Paris, Aug. 19. Besides the King's own Regiment, which is expected in the Neighbourhood of Versailles, there are also expected the Royal Regiment, that of Dauphiné, and the old Corps. The King has appointed six Counsellors of State to assist at his Coronation, and the Nobility that are to attend at that Ceremony are preparing their Equipages. The Bishop of Prejus, Preceptor to the King, went from Versailles the 7th Instant, at Three in the Morning; some say he is exiled, and others, that he is voluntarily retired to a Convent. The Prince of Conti, accompanied by the Princess his Mother, and the two Princes her Sons, went the 7th Instant to the Convent of Port-Royal, to visit the Princess his Spouse; the Cardinal de Noailles went thither likewise, but notwithstanding this Visit, that Princess produced to him the next Day her Act of Appeal to the Great Chamber from the Sentence of the Court of Requests. The King's own Regiment is to raise a Fort in the Park of Versailles, which is to be defended against the King and all the Nobility, who are to attack it; thereby to give his Majesty more clearly an exact Idea of the Attack of a Place than can be represented to him by the Theory of Fortification. The Certificates of Liquidation that were risen to 30 Livres, are fallen to 28, and Actions are at 800.

Hague, Aug. 18. At the Time that People were extremely busy here to dispose of the Employments vacant by the Duke of Holstein's Death, and that a great Number of Competitors were following the Possession of his several Posts, News came that it is not the Duke of Holstein-Beck who is dead at Wittenberg, but the Duke of Holstein-Norbourg, who was in the Imperial Service of the Low-Countries. He who is Governor of Ipsa is alive at Aix-la-Chapelle, whither he went for the Use of the Baths. The States of Holland are separated till the 21st Instant, not having yet settled the Points they had under Deliberation. No News is yet received of the four East India Ships that are missing; 'tis all the general Opinion that they are lost.

Palmouth, Aug. 9. Yesterday came in the George from Lisbon.

Phymouth, Aug. 15. Yesterday sailed the Hannah for London.

Bristol, Aug. 17. On Thursday arrived the Lydia from New York, and the Bristol Merchant from New England.

Deal, Aug. 12. The 6 King's Ships are still here. All the outward-bound are sailed Westward. Arrived the Providence from Antegoa; and the Marquis from Malaga.

London, August 4.
